Editorial

"AY, TEAR HER TATTERED ENSIGN DOWN!"

Little can be said that had not already been said again and again about the tragedy of Robert Kennedy's assassination. One thing has now been proven, however. His contention that new leadership is desperately needed by this country has been underlined in the most terrible way. The first responsibility of government is to maintain order. The fact that this administration has allowed and encouraged "civil disobedience", by rewarding those who disregard the law, may well have encouraged this outrage. When people are allowed to ignore and break the law, the next inevitable breakdown is anarchy and murder.

The vacuum in leadership, the destruction of the rights of the majority, the weakening of the power of the police by the Supreme Court, all have had a massive influence on the destruction of law and moral force in this country.

Fitful southeast winds, 0-15 knots, played an important part in the Corinthian race.

Billy Mee got off to an excellent start, only to be overtaken by F. Farnham after rounding Strawberry Point M Y C guide buoy. On the last leg of the course the fleet became becalmed at Nyes Ledge.

G. Fisher in Cloud 9, who had started 20 minutes late, caught a breeze, thus enabling him to catch up. The fleet started forward again, this time with G. Fisher in the lead. He maintained this lead to the finishing line, placing first by 00.50 over second place Diana, skippered by F. Farnham. G. Parker in No. 291 came in third.

The Beetle Cats sailed a course from the race committee boat to Strawberry Point guide buoy to Barstow Rock Red Nun 6 and finish off the race committee boat.

Briggs' Eeyore took the lead at the start of the race and increased it throughout the course to win first place.

Second place went to B. Roderick in Pussy Cat. R. Mitchell's Swamp Fox placed third.

both dismayed and upset, to put it mildly. It came, as everyone knows, as a complete jolt to the entire nation.

The above, however, is not my motive for writing this letter. My motive is as follows:

I am an eighth grade student at Old Rochester Regional High School. I went to school that terrible morning of June 6th expecting to hear one of the administration, the principal most likely, give a statement, very short memorial speech, or perhaps even a moment of silent meditation pertaining to this great man's death. I heard nothing. I was totally shocked and appalled. Shocked because I remember the short memorial speech and excellent assembly the day after Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. died. Appalled because I could not believe, could not conceive of the fact that Robert Kennedy's death had been overlooked by our administration.

You can understand how completely flabbergasted I was when I read in the Standard Times right on the first page under "R.F.K. Memorial Rites Planned", "the faculty and students at Old Rochester Regional High School stood with heads bowed this morning as the flag was lowered to half-staff on the school's flagpole". This, I am sorry to say, is a fallacy. We did neither. The flag was already at half-staff when we arrived at school. Obviously though, one of

SCULPTURE EXHIBIT

The work of Beverly B. Seamans will be on display at the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center during the month of June. The show will be mainly sculpture that is charming and interesting. The artist began her art education at the Museum School of Fine Arts. In 1965 she studied with George Demetrios and in 1967 with Peter Abate. She is a member of the Cambridge Art Association and the Cambridge New England Sculptors' Association.

The paintings and especially the garden sculpture are very appealing and well received at this time of year. Most of the works are for sale.
